Deniz White Marble is a natural marble that is sourced from Iran. It is a beautiful, durable, and affordable material for any space. This marble has a white base with gentle dark veins.
